

TIZARD RESEARCH SEMINAR SERIES 2017/2018

Tizard Centre (SSPSSR)

Tuesday 19 September 2017 – Dr Stuart Todd, Senior Lecturer in Learning Disability Nursing, University of South Wales.

“And then they were dead! How? The last months of life of people with learning disabilities”

Wednesday 25 October 2017 – Prof Sally-Ann Cooper, Professor of Learning Disabilities (mental health and wellbeing), University of Glasgow. *“Health of people with intellectual disabilities”

Thursday 23 November 2017 - Dr Allyn Thomas, PhD student Tizard Centre (alternative venue to be confirmed) *“Worthiness and the response of the police to mental illness”

Wednesday 24 January 2018 – Dr Peter Langdon, Senior Lecturer in Clinical Psychology and Disability *“An evaluation of the Transforming Care programme – progress towards discharging people with intellectual and other developmental disabilities from hospital”

Tizard Research Seminars 17:00-18:00 hrs

Grimond Lecture Theatre 3, University of Kent, Canterbury

The seminars are followed by a short informal drinks reception in Grimond Foyer to which all are welcome.

Further information

E:J.Ruffels@kent.ac.uk

www.kent.ac.uk/tizard/research/seminars/index.html

