

Treating people with learning disabilities equally and fairly in health services.

The Kent, Surrey, Sussex Community of Practice local meetings (or KSS for short) are working to do this.

Easyread version

KSS will be supporting everyone to:

- be person centred
- give the best care and support
- make sure people are treated equality
- get the healthcare people need.

KSS have now set up local meetings to look at the next steps.

All Community of Practice members are invited.

We will look at:

- the things people have told us
- introduce the KSSCoP Champions and the areas they will be working on
- agree how other local meetings work and what they look at.
