

Behavioural well-being in special schools: How to reduce behaviour that challenges and improve everyone's well-being

Tuesday 26 June 2018
10:00 -16:15 pm

QRBC meeting rooms
Queens Road, Coventry, CV1 3EG

Are you a head teacher, teacher, school administrator, governor, parent, leader of Special Education Needs (SEN) in local authorities?

Are you interested in evidence-based approaches to behavioural well-being in schools?

Join leading academics and practitioners to hear about whole-school thinking to tackle challenging behaviour, academic supports, and staff well-being in special school contexts. A mixture of key evidence-based presentations and practical workshops for educators.

This is a free event for anyone working in or supporting a special school setting

To book a place email diana.smith@warwick.ac.uk

This event is funded by the University of Warwick Public Engagement Fund and is hosted by the Sharland Foundation Developmental Disabilities ABA Research and Impact Network (SF-DDARIN) in partnership with the Centre for Behaviour Solutions (CBS) Ltd.
