

Programme of Workshops (second draft)

Slot A (10.30)
Room 1 (film & live)	Challenging health inequalities: the need for reasonable adjustments to deliver health care for people with learning disabilities (Jim Blair)
Room 2 (film)	Ways of communicating and reassuring people with learning disabilities to feel free to speak, including in relation to health care (Bob Parsons)
Room 3 (film)	Development and implementation of Profound and Multiple Learning Disability Core & Essential Service Standards (Care Management Group)
Room 4 (film)	Providing tailored input, that has an impact on practice, to services supporting men with learning disabilities who are deaf/blind (Southdown Housing)
Room 5	Empowering recovery college peer trainers with learning disabilities to take on strategic positions in promoting mental and physical health (The Huntercombe Group)
Room 6	Review of the Positive Behaviour Support training for parents co-produced by a School, City Council and NHS Trust (Matt Steeples and Rosie McRae)
Room 7	Evaluation of the work of consultant co-teachers with learning disabilities who monitor and develop the quality of learning disability education (Cathy Bernal)
Slot B (11.50)
Room 1 (film & live)	Accessing healthcare by people with learning disabilities who display behaviour described as challenging (Viv Cooper)
Room 2 (film)	'It takes 2' project supporting people with learning disabilities to get more involved in their communities and have equality of access (Avenues Group)
Room 3 (film)	Providing training for GP surgery staff, sharing resources with patients and carers and calling on policymakers to reduce health inequality (Dimensions)
Room 4 (film)	Overcoming the challenges in administering emergency epilepsy medication and assessing administration competency (Southdown Housing)
Room 5	Evaluation of mental health promotion groups and the views of people with learning disabilities who attended the groups (Peter Woodward)
Room 6	The role of LD Liaison Nurses in supporting patients with LD in an acute trust hospital (Eloise Brett)
Room 7	Challenging health inequalities: the need for reasonable adjustments to deliver health care for people with learning disabilities (Jim Blair)
Slot C (1.40)
Room 1 (film & live)	Evaluation of mental health promotion groups and the views of people with learning disabilities who attended the groups (Peter Woodward)
Room 2 (film)	The role of LD Liaison Nurses in supporting patients with LD in an acute trust hospital (Eloise Brett)
Room 3 (film)	Review of the Positive Behaviour Support training for parents co-produced by a School, City Council and NHS Trust (Matt Steeples and Rosie McRae)
Room 4	Providing tailored input that has an impact on practice, to services supporting men with learning disabilities who are deaf/blind (Southdown Housing)
Room 5	Development and implementation of Profound and Multiple Learning Disability Core & Essential Service Standards (Care Management Group)
Room 6	Accessing healthcare by people with learning disabilities who display behaviour described as challenging (Viv Cooper)
Room 7	Challenging health inequalities: the need for reasonable adjustments to deliver health care for people with learning disabilities (Jim Blair)

Slot D (3.00)
Room 1 (film & live)	Evaluation of the work of consultant co-teachers with learning disabilities who monitor and develop the quality of learning disability education (Cathy Bernal)
Room 2 (film)	Methods of promoting and facilitating access to healthcare carried out by Sussex Community Trust (Daisy-Ann Hack)
Room 3 (film)	Empowering recovery college peer trainers with learning disabilities to take on strategic positions in promoting mental and physical health (The Huntercombe Group)
Room 4	Overcoming the challenges in administering emergency epilepsy medication and assessing administration competency (Southdown Housing)
Room 5	Ways of communicating and reassuring people with learning disabilities to feel free to speak, including in relation to health care (Bob Parsons)
Room 6	Providing training for GP surgery staff, sharing resources with patients and carers and calling on policymakers to reduce health inequality (Dimensions)
Room 7	'It takes 2' project supporting people with learning disabilities to get more involved in their communities and have equality of access (Avenues Group)

Notes:

14 workshops: 1 presented once (Daisy Ann Hack), 1 presented 3 times (Jim Blair), 12 presented twice.

4 cameras needed.

Room 1 is main hall and live streamed.