

Sustaining Our Community

The Kent, Surrey & Sussex Learning Disability Community of Practice 2018 Conference – 21 June, The Charis Centre, Crawley

Workshops

1. Challenging health inequalities: the need for reasonable adjustments to deliver health care for people with learning disabilities –Jim Blair
2. Ways of communicating and reassuring people with learning disabilities to feel free to speak, including in relation to health care –Bob Parsons
3. Development and implementation of Profound and Multiple Learning Disability Core & Essential Service Standards – Care Management Group
4. Providing tailored input, that has an impact on practice, to services supporting men with learning disabilities who are deaf/blind – Southdown Housing
5. Empowering recovery college peer trainers with learning disabilities to take on strategic positions in promoting mental and physical health – The Huntercombe Group
6. Review of the Positive Behaviour Support training for parents co-produced by a School, City Council and NHS Trust – Matt Steeples and Rosie McRae
7. Evaluation of the work of consultant co-teachers with learning disabilities who monitor and develop the quality of learning disability education – Cathy Bernal
8. Accessing healthcare by people with learning disabilities who display behaviour described as challenging –Viv Cooper
9. 'It takes 2' project supporting people with learning disabilities to get more involved in their communities and have equality of access – Avenues Group

10. Providing training for GP surgery staff, sharing resources with patients and carers and calling on policymakers to reduce health inequality – Dimensions
11. Overcoming the challenges in administering emergency epilepsy medication and assessing administration competency – Southdown Housing
12. Evaluation of mental health promotion groups and the views of people with learning disabilities who attended the groups – Peter Woodward
13. The role of LD Liaison Nurses in supporting patients with LD in an acute trust hospital – Eloise Brett
14. Methods of promoting and facilitating access to healthcare carried out by Sussex Community Trust – Daisy-Ann Hack

---

To book a free place: <http://bit.ly/KSSCOPconf2018>

For more information: <http://bit.ly/KSSCOPinfo2018>

There also stalls available on the day, contact l.howells@bild.org.uk to reserve a space