

Do you have a learning disability? Would you like to tell people what this is like?

 A portrait of Laura Lea, a woman with short grey hair and glasses, wearing a black top.	My name is Laura Lea. I help service users and people with mental health problems to get involved.
 A portrait of Simon Powell, a man with short grey hair, smiling, wearing a pink patterned shirt.	My name is Simon Powell. I am a tutor.
 A photograph of a large, multi-story brick building with a gabled roof, identified as Salomons College.	We work at Salomons, which is a college where psychologists do their training.  A photograph of a sign for the Salomons Centre for Applied Psychology, featuring the text "Salomons Centre for Applied Psychology" on a white background with a blue vertical strip on the left.
 A photograph of a man and a woman smiling together. The man is wearing a blue jacket and the woman is wearing a purple sweater.	We would like people with learning disabilities to talk to us. You could also get involved in the course.

We had one meeting in April, and we're having another meeting in May. This is meeting Number Two

Last time Laura came to the meeting. She won't be able to come this time.

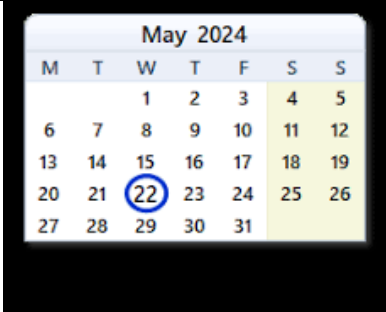

Another tutor will come instead. She is called Carmel Digman

Can you help us by coming to an online meeting - using a computer or an iPad?

We will tell you about our work and listen to your ideas.

The meeting is on Wednesday 22nd May at 11 o'clock for an hour.

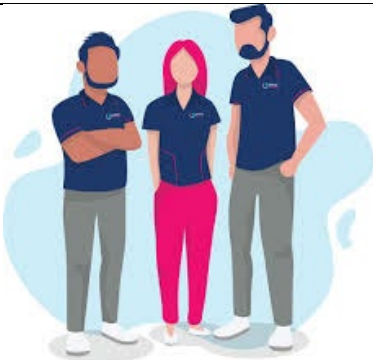

Here is the Zoom link for the meeting:

Meeting ID: 856 609 2096

This is a different link from last time

Please speak to your carer or support worker if you would want help to use a computer for the meeting.

We would pay you £20 (twenty pounds) for your work

Simon and Carmel can answer any questions you might have.
